PLAY TIME...

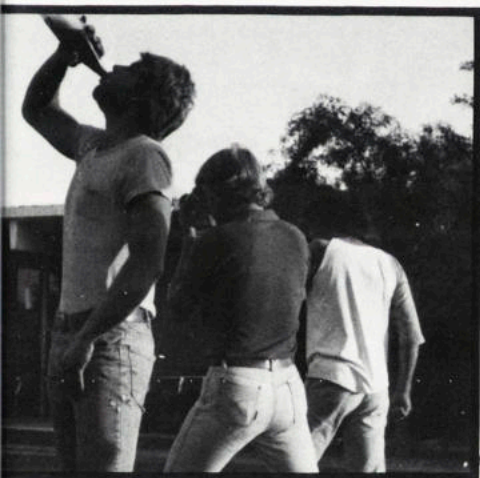

Night time was the best of all, dancing into the wee hours of the morning, or night, depending on your preference. Of course one can't forget the bonfire, gathering around the "CEU" to set truck loads of wood on fire, standing around to watch it burn for hours. But slowly the fire died down and the people slowly filtered out until everyone was gone and only the glowing embers remained.

Don't forget the party at the Hollow Bottle or the torch run. And again the spiked punch, but no one cared. The torch run, starting at MacDonald's and running up Wood Hill, passing the "torch" (a J.C. Penny unbreakable) to the next person and so on. By the time they were finished, the participants collapsed from sheer exhaustion.

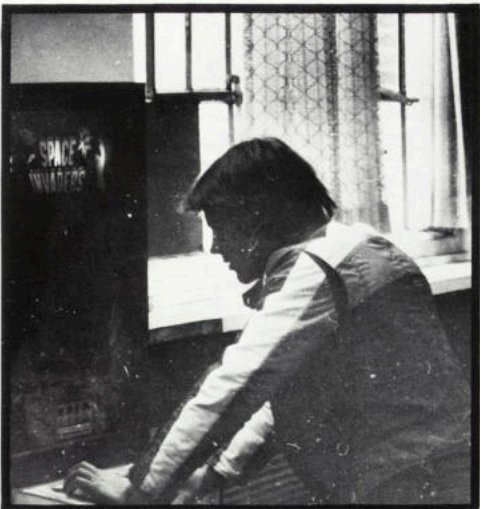

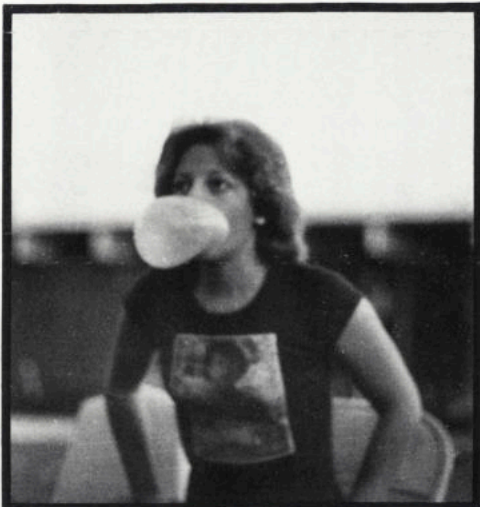

Homecoming is the time for playing in the mud, having contests and building floats. Do you remember the mudbowl? Sloshing around in the mud chasing after a mud covered football that no one could see. What about the contests? Shoving marshmallows into your mouth, blowing the biggest bubble, or drinking the most pop. Then there were the floats. Rushing to get them done, competing to have the best, and trying to make one that would stand out and win the most awards. Last but not least was the dance. Remember the spiked punch? Or was it spiked? Only your hairdresser knows!

"Mud is not bad—if you stay out of it."

The girls proved to be just as tough as the boys when it came to football.

Sometimes things really get boring.

DORM LIFE for some, is . . . A WAY OF LIFE

CLASS!

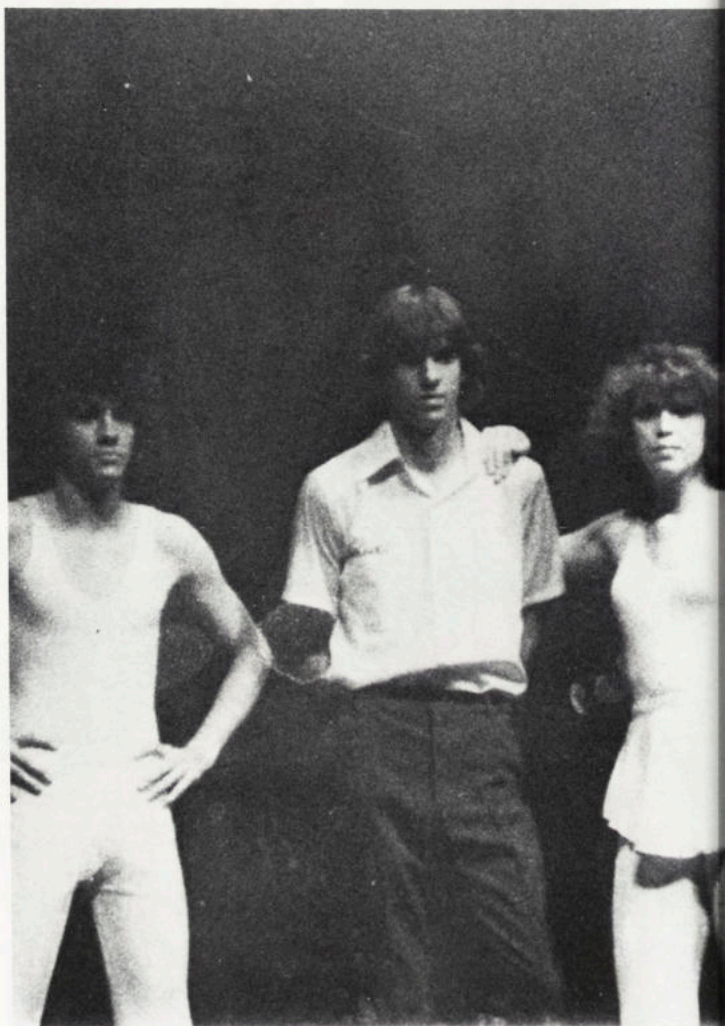

*Or Just

Fluffs Your

These are your plays, the ones that have you laughing and maybe crying. These are only a few of the characters that put on each of the plays. They all worked hard and each deserves a special thanks for the hard work that went into the performances that the audience saw. From the actors to the stage managers to the light and crew, each of you has put forth his or her best to make this year a year to remember.

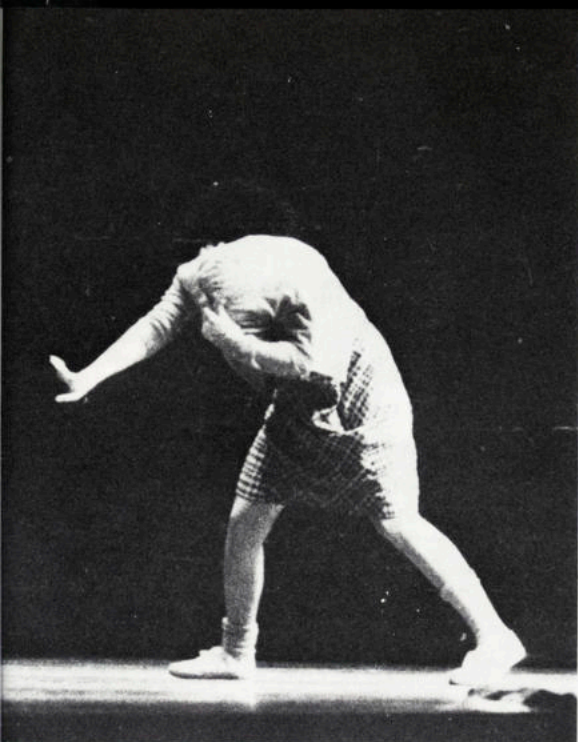

Don't you see it?

Give us your worst.

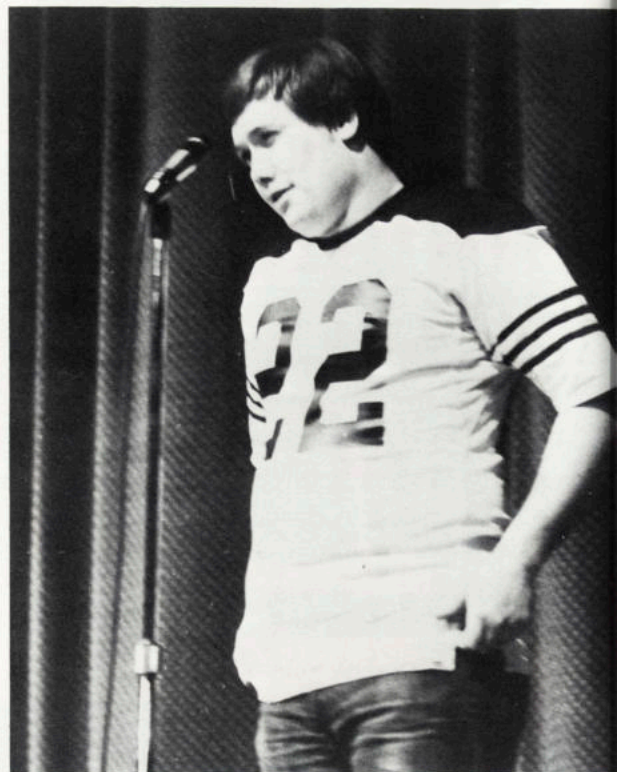

Oh, NO! Not that!

*TO BE OR NOT TO BE

Good Heavens you can't mean ...

*C.E.V. shows

Alan Peacock Lectures.

Ballet 9 added a new corner to dance (and C.E.U.)

These guys just sat around and looked good.

A dance for dancers.

The Young Americans sang their way through the show.

Where do you go after school? Home? Well, for some of you that's possible. But the rest of you are stuck going to the dorms, wading through bodies to get to your room. But where else do you go? Maybe you go to the game room or to the library to meet someone. Very few people study in the library. It's much more fun to talk. Once you find your group where do you go? The show? "Shorty's?" Or maybe to a local party. To each his own.

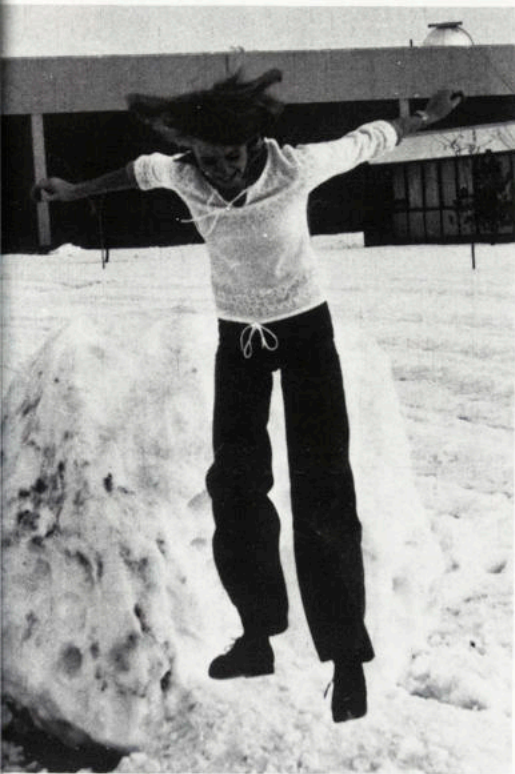

The wash has to be done—rain or snow.

Playing on giant snowballs is fun.

WHERE DO YOU GO AFTER SCHOOL?

Looking good is fun—if you look good.

Talk, talk, talk.

The Fearless leader!

Being a student body or class officer is a hard thing to do. It's not all fun and games, although some might think so. What student government is, is a lot of hard work which includes trying to please many people at once without hurting the feelings of others who don't like things the way are.

Not everyone can be a student body officer. The people in the class have the necessary talents needed for a class which deals with the people. Of course along with the hard work comes the fun, like skiing trips and leadership workshops.

Jim Tallerico just zippin things up.

Close your eyes and jump. And try not to scream when you hit the ground!

I was a good girl and I got a lollipop. Below: Leaders need followers and followers need leaders.

HARD WORK . . . and FUN

Half of the freshmen class officers, Mackae and Bob.

Dances, Forums, Movies, Plays, Concerts, Games, are some of the activities which were brought to you for fun and entertainment. For instance, remember Elias Perez in Concert, the famous "Ballet Nine", "The Omen", Disco Dancing, and the marshmallow stuffing contest in "Almost Anything Goes". Through all these experiences much fun was hopefully had by all and many new friendships were formed.

Skiing's fun.

Up, up, and away!

On an ordinary day a person can walk into the forensics room and hear 14 mind-boggling, tongue twisting speeches at once. Confusion? Hardly. Everyone is perfecting what they do best—talking. According to Mr. Warren, the coach for the forensics team, the students learn to express themselves and at the same time try to put an idea across.

All is not work. The team prides itself in being the only group on campus to travel the most and the farthest. Fitting 14 people in a van or 9 people in a station wagon for 14 hours can be a grueling experience but everyone comes out of it laughing and only remembering the good times.

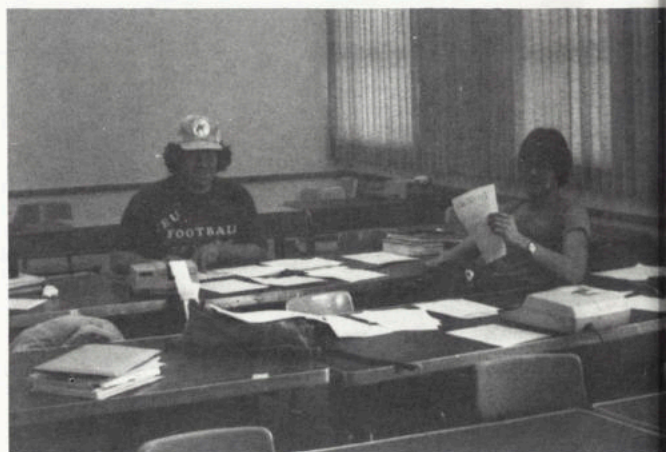

Cutting things to pieces with a torch.

MECHANICS

This is your class, from the high schooler's to the college students to old time coal miners. You're all here, trying to get a good start in your chosen field. Not only in coal mining but mechanics, welding, cosmetology and nursing. All are good fields with plenty of job opportunities, all are worth while goals. To be the best possible miner or nurse. To be the best in everything you do no matter what it is. That's what's important.

Just a little bit ...

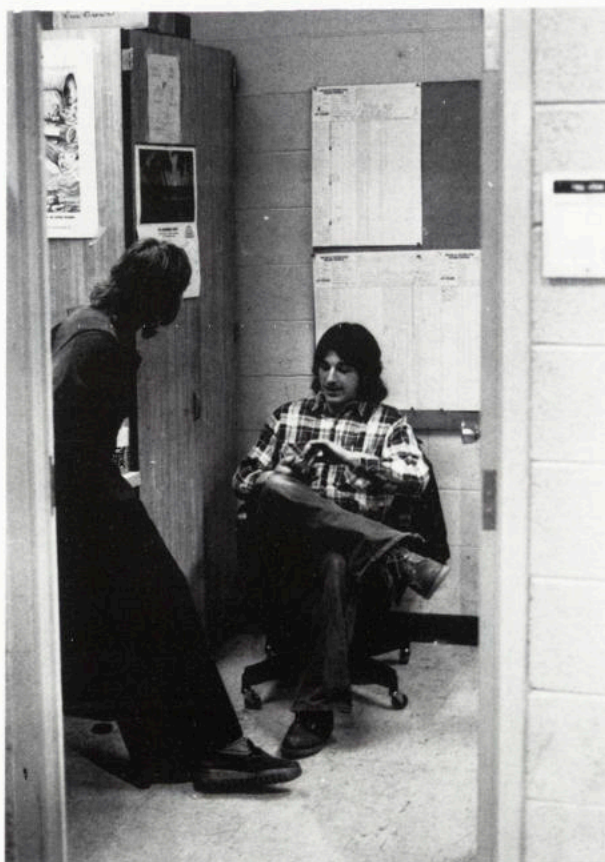

Jim Badger prepares a project.

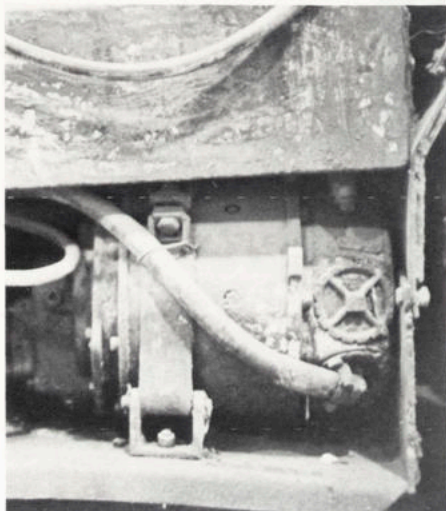

WELDING

Observe while I show you how it's done.

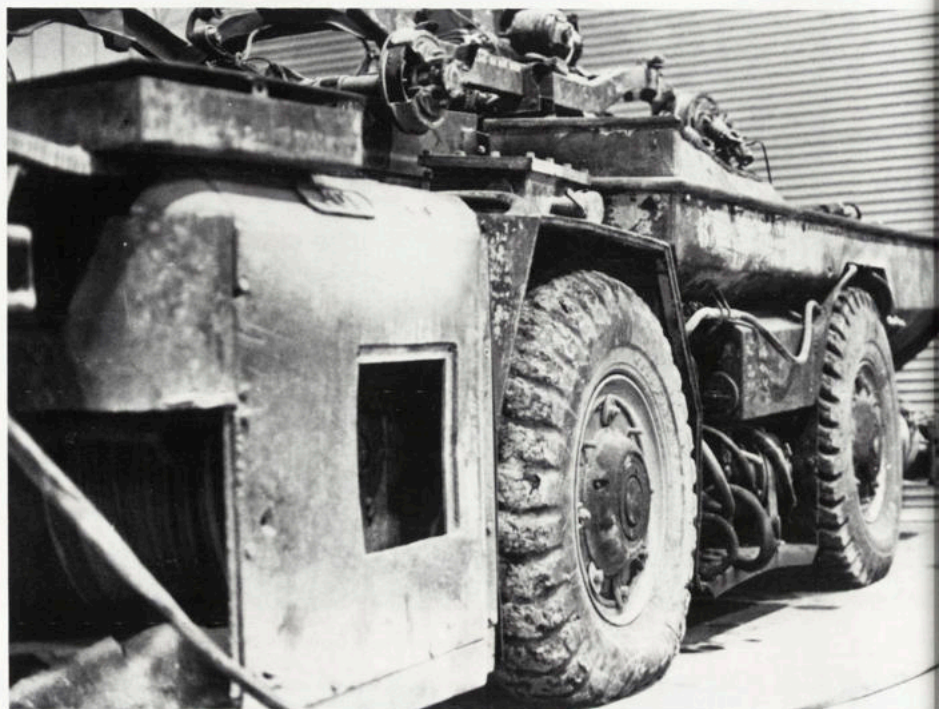

Paul Howa, instructor, offers a little advice.

GETTING READY

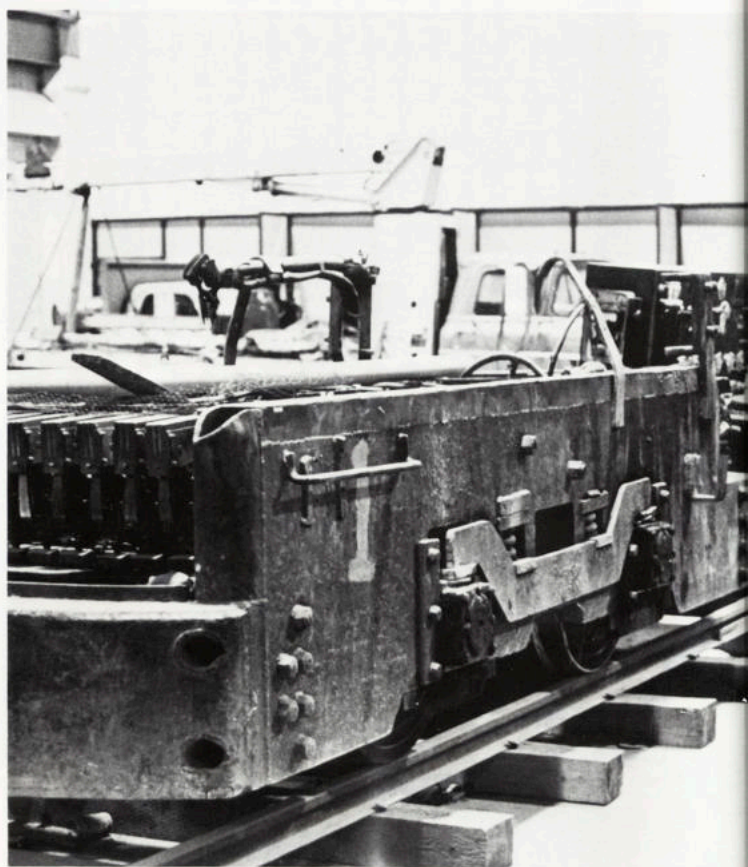

Very large motor.

A spotless piece of mining equipment.

MINING

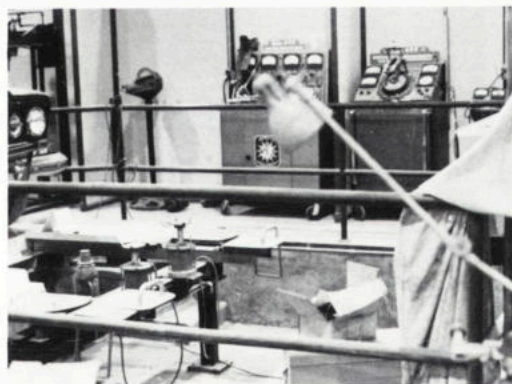

Ever see a train like this?

Fixing cars is great.

The high schoolers are here to guarantee themselves a good job when their through. All of you are concerned about improving your present position or climbing up the job ladder. But whether you are here to improve your position so you can make better money, which is a big matter in our day or rising inflation, or just to refresh your memory you have contributed to the College of Eastern Utah and helped to better our community as a result.

Tools make the mechanic.

THE PEOPLE THAT BRING YOU THE NEWS

Have you ever wondered what kind of work went in to the production of a newspaper? Have you ever wondered what kind of influence that a paper has on a small campus? The CEU newspaper keeps everyone informed with the things happening. From a story about a beer can collection to stories about Student Government, CEU's staff covers it all.

ONLY YOUR HAIRDRESSER KNOWS

Cut-cut-snip, while the others are rolling and washing. This is cosmetology where you learn to cut, wash, roll and style hair. By now you're all experts and can go anywhere in the world and become the world's best beauticians. But before you set out to make millions take a little time to remember some of the fun times you had, the snickers when a bald man walked in have his hair cut. The gasps of horror when a girl with long thick hair came in to get a permanent and so many more.

THE LADIES WITH A SMILE

You're all about to leave and go to work for the hospital or one of the doctors. Some of you may go to another city or even another state. You've all gone through the extensive training and teaching. Some may quit but the rest of you stuck it out, proving that you have what it takes to make good nurses and now you've each reached your goal. Gook luck in the future.

THE NEWMAN COMMUNITY

THE COMPETITION: WAA

WAA keeps the men on their toes.

If you're a girl and you're active in some sport, then you're in WAA.

The OUTDOOR People

The east dorms after a wild weekend.

A long lost ancestor—me.

Ah! The wilderness?

Lysurgic Acid Diethylimide.

Do you like to get back to nature once in a while? Is it the mountains, the lakes, the streams, or the fresh air that draws you away from the hustle and bustle of the city? And how do you like to do it? Backpack? 4-Wheel it? Or just parking it in one spot and relaxing?

These people prefer backpacking overall. Last year about 20 members set out for a trip, but because of a blizzard, their numbers were reduced to six. Which made things a bit easier because there were less people to worry about. But never the less everyone had a great time.

Our president Gail Heath.

What do you do for FUN?

Mackae Potter terrorizes unsuspecting people in telephone booths.

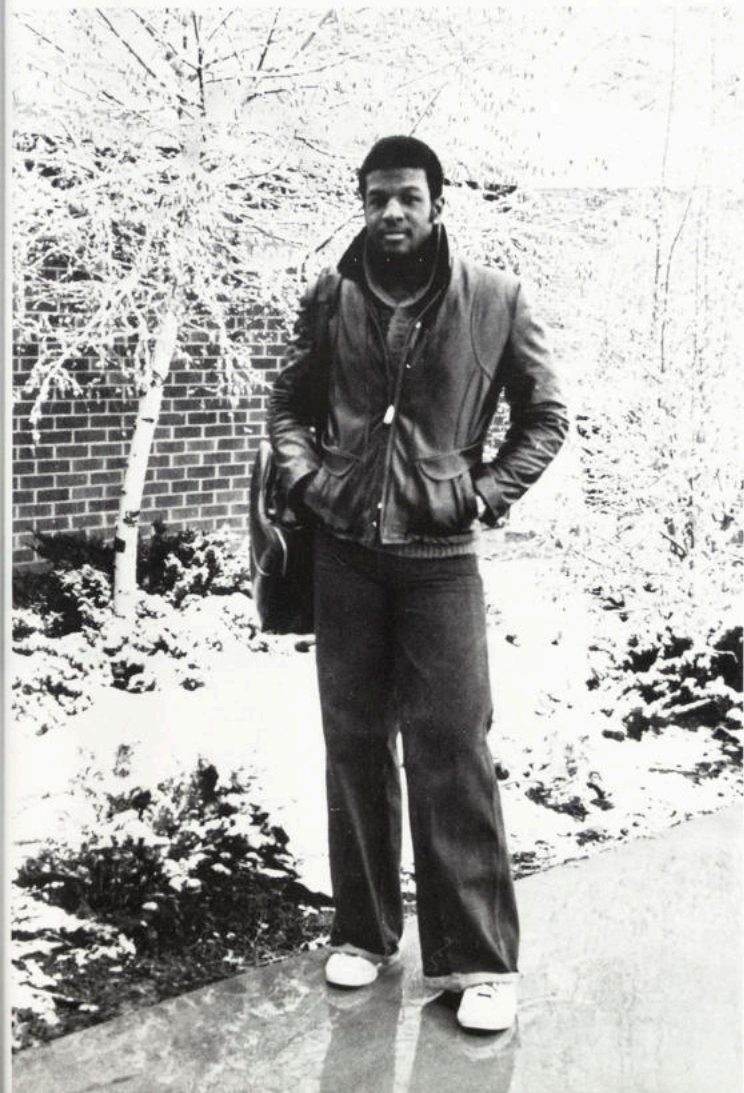

Bonnie Halverson apparently hates painting posters.

These girls like to lock their keys in their car during their spare time.

All together now...! Below: It's certainly not easy work.

Look sharp-Get those knee's up-Point those toes and SMILE. The familiar words from the coach. All so you can be the best drill team in the region. All the work and practice that goes into each drill. The perfect synchronization and movements, no mistakes and always SMILE. But you don't mind, performing in the middle of each game, seeing the pleased expressions on each persons face, it makes all the work and time seem worth it. Each time you start a new drill you keep in mind the perfection of the last one and SMILE.

STEP HIGH and SMILE

The bodyguards!

The 1979-80 school year marks the rebirth of a CEU program. The college has not has a football team in 17 years. Under the direction of Coach Ed Cody, Tom Rabb, former Carbon High School head football coach; Ray Barrus, current CEU wrestling, track and field coach; Jack Woodward, part-time coach; Ed Browning, former Duchesne High School football coach; over 50 student athletes have settled in as members of the squad.

The players came from throughout the country, representing high schools in Utah, Michigan, Texas, Oklahoma, Washington, Wyoming, and California.

A team for sure. The girls on the CEU girl's basketball team are a tough group to beat. With all of the hard work and dedication that goes into making a team a winning team, CEU has it all.

The girls practice long hard hours for the success that they want and receive. No slack-ing-off in this group. Every member puts in her very best to unite the team.

PUT IT UP FOR CEU!

SPORTS IN THE SPOTLIGHT!

These sports wouldn't be in the "spotlight" without spectators.

CEU BASEBALL

Practice makes perfect.

I reach into the sack ...

Curt Jensen takes a stab at the ball.

It's only February and already you see the teams, especially the baseball teams, out getting ready for another season of competition. The temperatures range from 40 to 50 degrees, just right for practicing the game. You would think that in temperatures like that everyone would be wearing warm-up suits, or something like that. Wrong. Most prefer shorts and a cut off shirt. Others, well, lets just say it's still not that warm. At the time of print, the team had not yet been chosen.

CEU SOFTBALL

Cathy Howa slides one into the catcher.

Sharon Moses sends it home.

Yes it's that time again. Get out the balls, bats, and the whole mess. Get your body in shape for the things to come because you'll need it. What's going on? Softball is going on. Although the girls prefer to practice in warmer surroundings, they still get the workout they need. At the time of print, the team had not yet been picked.

Marcie Whitehead set herself up for the ball.

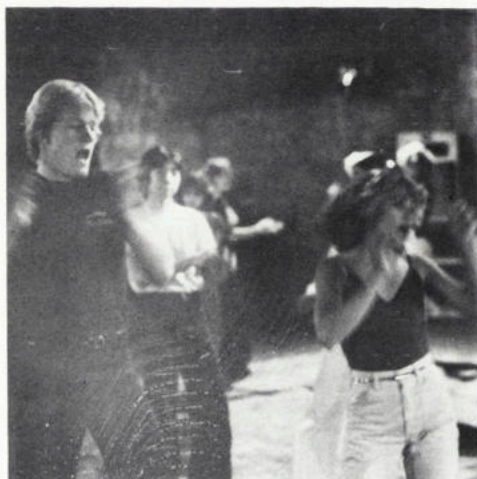

YOUTH is the season for.

What plans have you made for the future? Possibly a trip to Europe? Or maybe a new car? You've heard of the old saying: "Take one day at a time." That's okay until tomorrow comes and you're out looking for a job. This requires planning ahead.

Many, for one reason or another, are curious as to what the future holds in store for them. Some say they can see and it doesn't look too bright. But whatever the future holds, man will always be able to use it to his advantage.

How do you rate yourself? 1-10? Self-image is an important thing if you're going to do anything with your life. Many people have little or no self-image. Self-image is how you feel about yourself, some of it comes from how others feel about you also. Are you confident? Is it easy for you to make a decision by yourself without the help of others? And when you do make that decision do you stick by it 100 percent, whatever the consequences? These qualities are not easily acquired. It takes a strong person to develop them.

Ceaselessly the weaver, Time,
 Sitting at his mystic loom,
 Keeps his arrowy shuttle flying;
 Every thread anears our dying—
 And, with melancholy chime,
 Very low and sad withal,
 Sings his solemn madrigal
 As he weaves our web of doom.

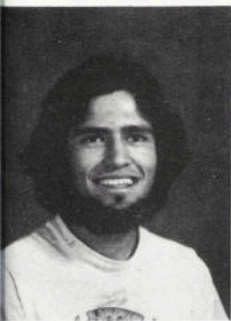

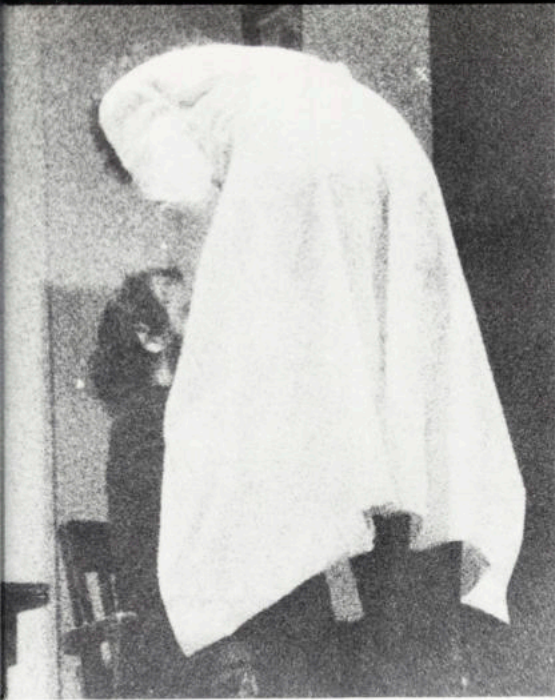

"Mortals!" thus he, weaving, sings,
 "Bright or dark the web shall be,
 As ye will it; all the tissues
 Blending in harmonious issues,
 Or discordant colorings;
 Time the shuttle drives; but you
 Give to every thread its hue,
 And elect your destiny.

Until now you've been struggling to get out of school. Until now you've been worrying about grades and which classes to take. Until now you've been studying very hard, trying to do your best. But now you're finished. Some of you may go on to universities or larger colleges, others may get a job, get married, or both.

This was your sophomore year, as you look back on all of the things you did and all of the fun you had, as you look at all of the people you once knew, don't forget the little things, all the long nights you spent in the library studying or your first trip over the new freeway. All of the small insignificant things that really didn't seem that important then, somehow seem more important now.

Only a year ago you were seniors, waiting impatiently to graduate and get out into the world. Well now you're here and what do you think of it? Confused? Don't worry, because if you're like most freshman (and a few sophomores) you're not really sure what you want. Doctor, lawyer, milkman? Out of a possible 144,000 jobs, there's one for you (and one you might even like). So relax, you'll find something that's just right for you, after all, doesn't everybody?

Where do you do from here? How do get there? You can't get there from here. What? But you can get anyplace from here. That's the answer. It sounds like nothing is impossible. Many act like anything can happen if you work hard enough, while others insist that everything is impossible. It depends on your point of view, your out-look on the situation. And, of course, there's that hated word: Work. Work is one key to success. Not many people get on top by laying back and watching the world go by. Some work a life time to reach a goal, others grasp success overnight. There are two kinds of people: Those who do and those who don't. Which are you?

What do you think time really is? The clock, with its three arms rotating in a never widening circle? Is it the sun rising and setting in its ageless routine? Time is just something man uses to explain natural process's. Then why 24 hours in a day instead of 63 or 98? We'd have a lot more time to do things. Man uses time to pace himself, to set deadlines, and to waste. Think of the better grade you would have received if you only studied instead of wasting that time.

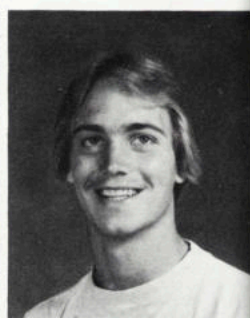

Man uses time for everything. Someone sets the pace and it's kept or broken, depending on what your doing.

Well then what is time?

Even now the time grows short, weeks turning into months, the months to years. Enjoy, take time. Today in the era of disco, rock-n-roll and those mindless electronic games, things are rushing by our eyes at an alarming rate. Many of us are unaware of the changes taking place. Because of the staggering amount it would be almost impossible to keep track of every advance that man makes. Next year will bring newer and bigger and possibly better things for humanity. But this year will remain in the minds of many as a year of extreme growth.

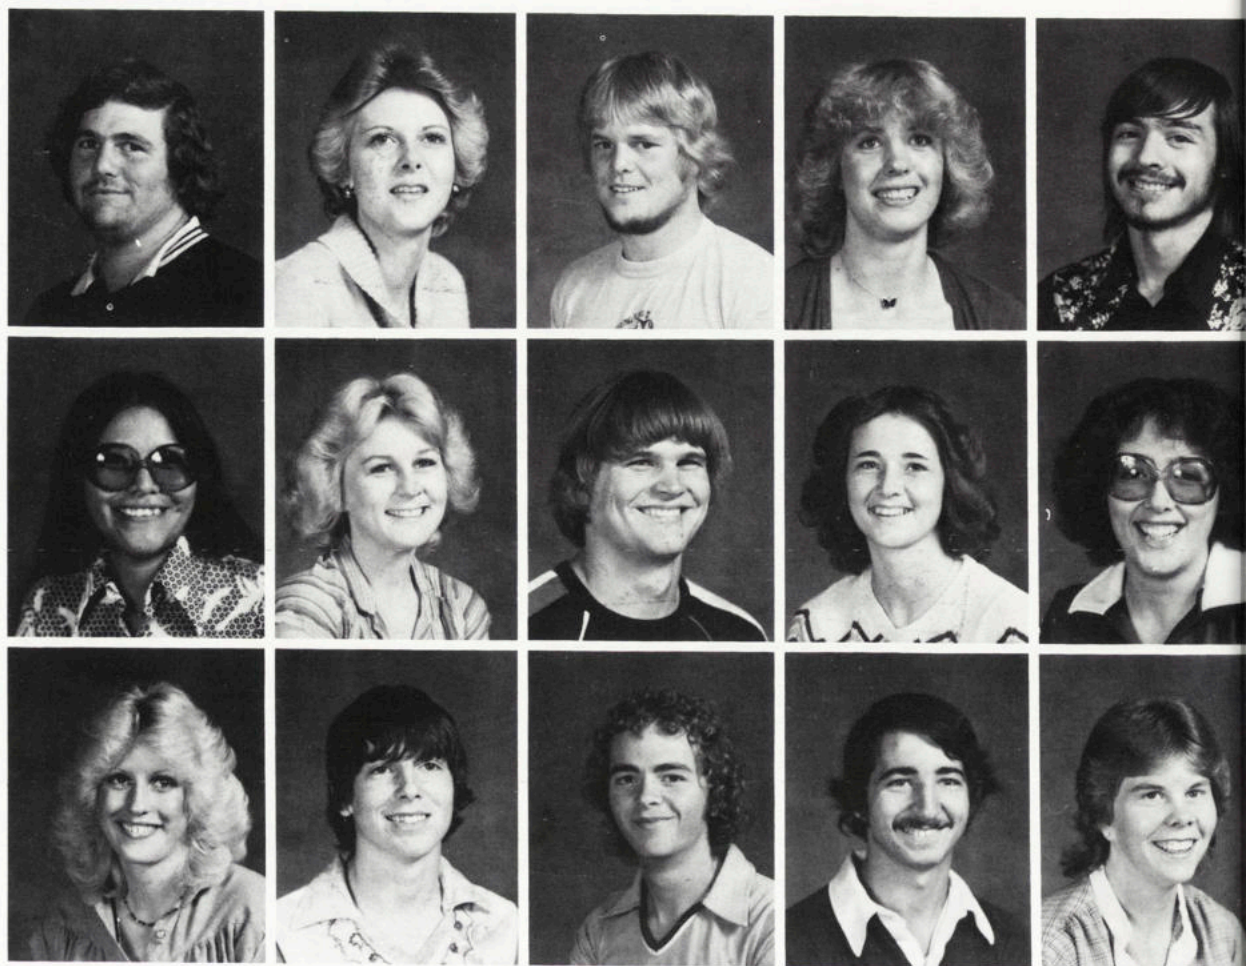

It's all in the wrist.

Remember 1979? Soaring interest rates making it impossible for a person to buy anything. The explosion of fuel prices slow the nation down to 55 mph. The deflation of the dollar, Wall Street sustaining record losses, and The Return of the Pink Panther.

PROCRASTINATION:

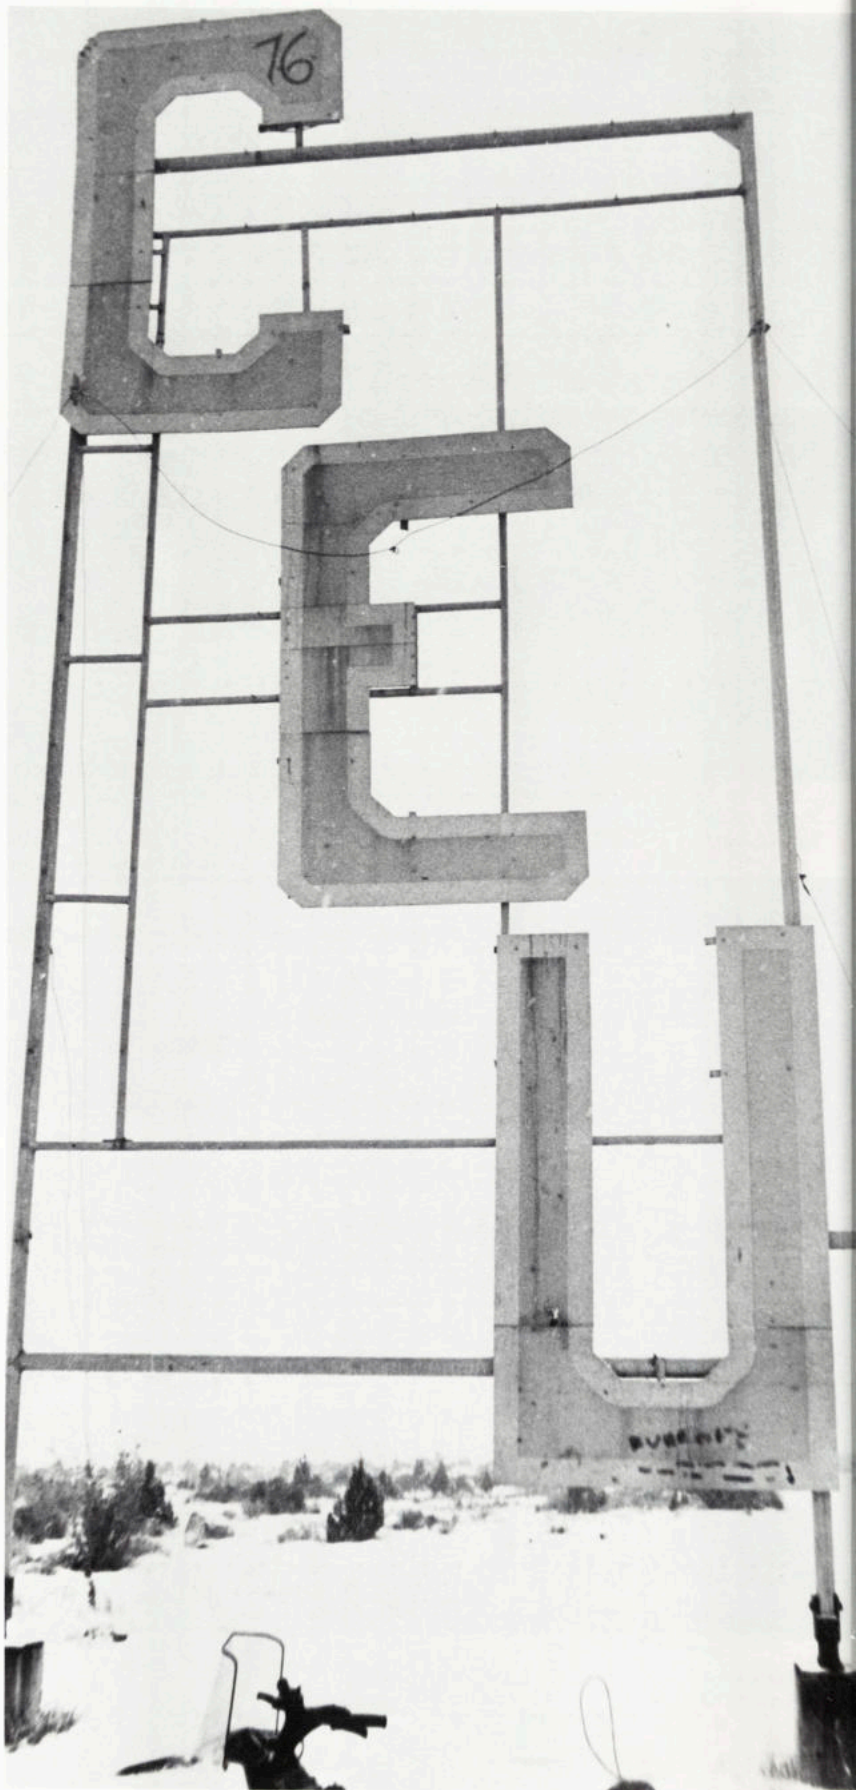

Sitting back watching time pass, thinking about maybe writing that English paper or getting that history paper started but never getting around to it. Instead what do you do? You go into the library and get kicked out, or getting "happy" with your friends and get into a fight. Or catch a cold and get high on cough medicine. And still that paper doesn't get done. You watch the days fly, what you don't see is your grades flying too!

TIME IS PASSING ARE YOU?

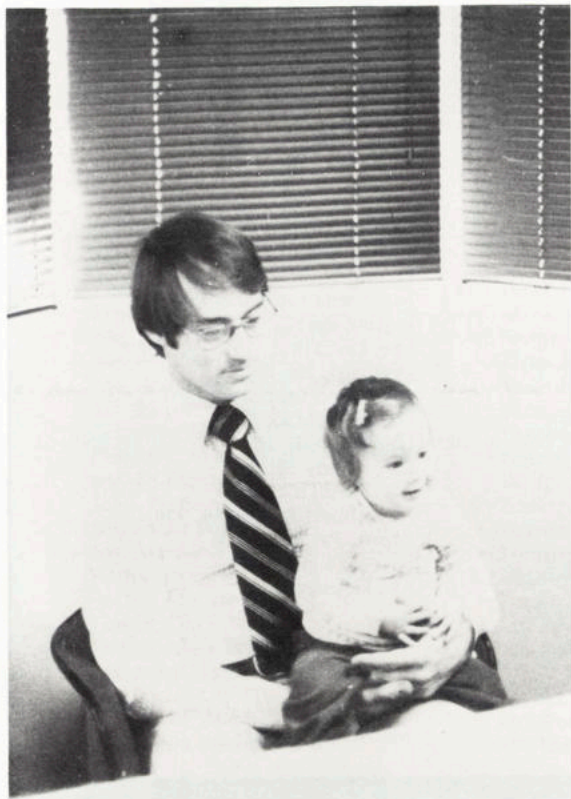

TIME TO SAY

GOOD-BYE

It Was Fun While It Lasted...
