Now lets get started on this great issue .

GAMMERA

The INVINCIBLE.

Gammera is a giant prehistoric turtle, dormant under Arctic ice for thousands of years.

A soviet jet is shot down over the Arctic releasing a small nuclear explosion releasing Gammera. Starving after its long sleep the voracious creature destroys everything in its path to find food.

The military tries to destroy with bombs but to no avail. The scientist discover that Gammera eat ~~the~~ the chemicals in the bombs and burning gases.

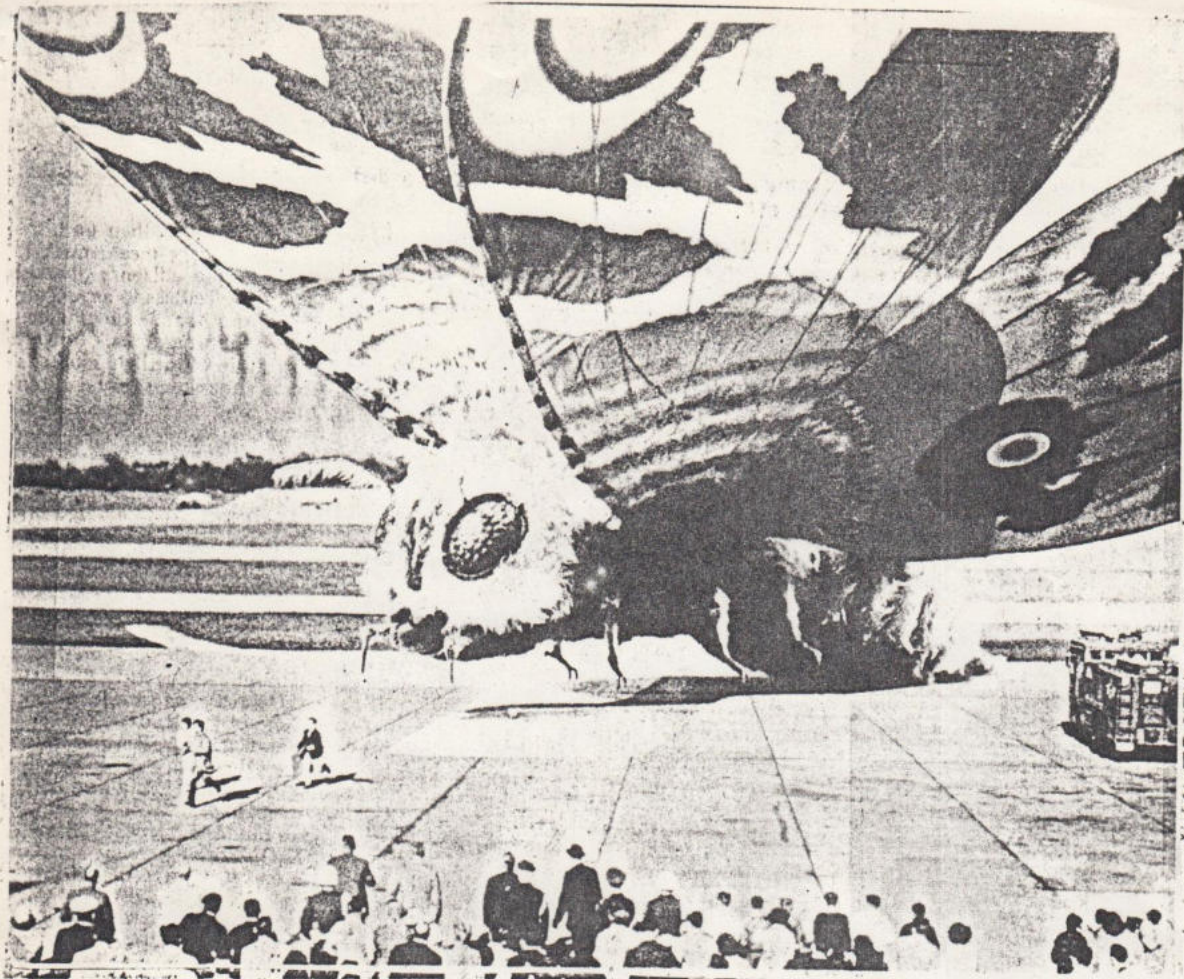

The U.N comes up with a plan to get rid of the monster the plan is to lure Gammera onto a platform with fire and two giant lones will then cover the platform with Gammera on top of it the platform attached to a rocket is then shot into space. The plan works and the world is saved.

MOTHTRA

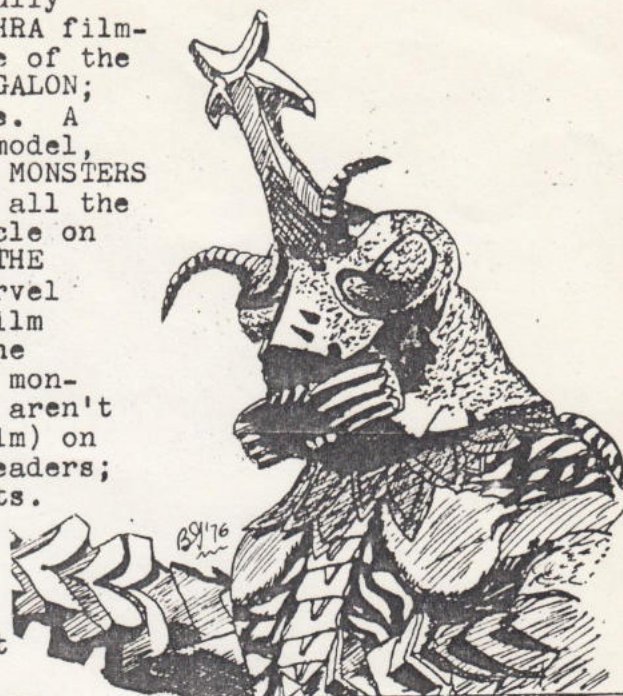

A joint expedition of Japanese-Rosilican scientist lands on their island called Infant Island. They then soon discover that the island still supports life despite a heavy residue of radioactivity from the H-bomb test blast.

The form of life is two dwarfed little girls only who worship a veritable winged behemoth. When the two little girls called Aelinas, are kidnapped unscrupulous promoters and exhibited in night clubs like side show freaks, the sacred egg that the girls once guarded hatches and the giant larva takes off in search of the two girls destroying ships as it swims thru the sea. As the spectacle reaches a climax, Mothtra under goes a metamorphosis from slumbering giant in a colossal cocoon to a giant moth.

Tokyo and Rosilica tremble to the beat of its tornadic wing as the enraged creature follows the telepathic cries for help from its helpless handmaidens. The airborne monstrosity destroys all in its path dams bridges, skyscrapers none of the military weapons are able to stop it not even the atomic heat-cannon, till it rescues the aelinas and returns to their Infant Island.

JAPANESE GIANTS #4 will be completed some-time during 1977. Features will hopefully include: Part two of our in-depth MOTHRA film-book; a mini-filmbook and review of one of the newest Godzilla films, GODZILLA VS. MEGALON; with a two color centerfold of the same. A report and review of the Aurora RODAN model, reviews of the 8mm films BATTLE OF THE MONSTERS and VARAN THE UNBELIEVABLE; a chart of all the Japanese monsters' footprints; an article on a brand new Godzilla film, REVENGE OF THE BIONIC MONSTER; a review of the new Marvel comic; GODZILLA, the newest Japanese film news; part one of a checklist of all the fanzines containing articles on Japanese monsters; mini-articles (for you fans who aren't sure which monster appeared in what film) on MOTHRA and GHIDRAH; letters from our readers; ads; plus many other interesting tidbits. All this from only $1.00 from BRAD BOYLE, 1758 MICHIGAN AVENUE, SALT LAKE CITY, UTAH 84108.

THE RETURN OF GRINDRAN!

MONSTER ZERO

by dan murray

As the story opens a strange planet has drifted into our solar system. The astronomers all over the world cannot help but notice it in the night sky.

Conferences were held world wide, after a time the new planet is named, planet X. Soon a rocket was launched containing two men from the United space agency, after a long trip through space our heroes land on planet X.

They depart from the space ship to look around, as they move away from the space ship, it is taken underground.

Then a small shaft rises out of the ground, a voice tells them to go inside it. Our heroes step inside it and immediately they descend, as the tube opens they see a long hallway, a voice tells them to follow the lights in the hall.

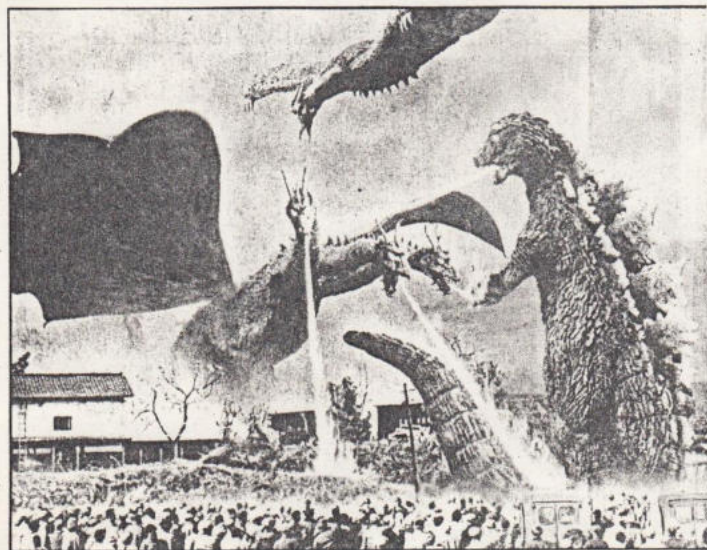

After a short walk they come into a dark room, suddenly the room lights and starts buzzing with activity, a humanoid sits behind a large console. "Sit down" says the man behind the console, I am 001 and to be brief I shall tell you what I want of you. He explains to them that the planet is currently being played by monster zero, at that moment an alarm sounds "monster zero is attacking!!", a voice says from a speaker.

On the screen behind them monster zero can be seen, "That's KING GHIDRAH" one of our heroes says.

"Yes monster zero is our threat to our planet, you see everything here has no., now what we want is to borrow Monster zero one and monster zero two, you would call them GODZILLA AND RODAN!!"

They tell them that by granting this they can destroy monster zero. "We must tell our people what you have said" our heroes say,

The aliens said that they would offer in exchange for a wonder drug that would cure all sickness on earth. As our heroes depart from planet X we see him laughing to himself.

As our heroes land back on earth, they tell the space agency what they have seen and heard. "I vote in favor of this" says one of the counselors, so do I" says another. The vote was almost unanimous, a few voted no but they were greatly outnumbered.

A few days later the armed forces await the aliens' arrival. The night before one of our heroes thinks he sees 001 on earth but he passes it off.

Back at the lake where the aliens said Godzilla could be found, the army stands ready, suddenly the water starts to boil then a space ship rises up from the water, then another and another. The lead ship breaks formation and lands near the army. 001 steps from the ship he is warmly greeted.

He tells them that his ships will take Godzilla & Rodan back to their planet along with our heroes and a famous scientist.

The two other ships move off, one over the lake, one over a nearby mountain. The first ship fires electrical beams into the water, then Godzilla rises out of the water. The second ship fires the beams at the mountain, rock is cut away and Rodan is pulled out. The ships return with their huge cargo underneath them. The men are taken aboard and they start the trip back to planet X.

On planet X, the ships set Godzilla and Rodan down near the saucer entrance. The men hurry home to the shelter of their underground complex to watch the battle.

On the outside near the monsters a door opens up, out extends a large radar cone shaped device, from it fires a beam of energy.

Suddenly the monsters are awakened, Godzilla roars to life and Rodan takes to the air. Seconds later Ghidrah appears over a mountain, and the battle is on!

Godzilla fires his atomic breath at Ghidrah and hits him in the side. Ghidrah returns fire with three electrical beams. Rodan swoops low and hits Ghidrah in the head (1 of them at least). Ghidrah returns to the air and flies back to his home on the other side of the planet!

Godzilla roars in victory!

, Back inside the complex our friendly alien is giving our heroes the formula for the drug. Our friends thank him and return to the ship.

As they lift they look down at Godzilla and Rodan who are looking up at them. "I feel kinda sorry about them, I kinda hate to leave them here."

"Forget it, the Earth is better off without them".

The ship heads back for Earth.

On Earth our friends play with the formula containing the knowledge of the wonder drug, ...or so they think.

"People of Earth" the tape starts "This is a warning, surrender to us or DIE!!".
"We have the power of monsters 0, 01, and 02, if you do not surrender we will unleash them on YOU! You have 12 hours to surrender!"

12 hr. passed we could do nothing, we did not have the power to stop them!

On time the aliens unleashed their attack. Godzilla, Rodan, and Ghidrah move as a team, attacking as they went, destroying as they went.

It was learned that the aliens used radio waves to control the monsters. It was also learned that the aliens could not stand high sounds. That is what we used on them. I worked! We killed them and blew their ships to pieces.

The monsters returned to their natural selves, Godzilla realising what they were doing to their planet they both attacked Ghidrah.

After a long battle Godzilla, Rodan and Ghidrah fell off a cliff into the water, After a while Ghidrah flew away, out into space and Godzilla and Rodan stayed hidden until their next adventure.
